

CHATEAU
BOYD-CANTENAC
GRAND CRU CLASSÉ
MARGAUX

The wines of Château Boyd-Cantenac result from the terroir revealed by the passionate work of all. Belonging to the same family for four generations, they are recognized as being among the most representative Crus of the Margaux appellation. Their charm lies in their ability to combine finesse, elegance, subtlety, complexity, density, intensity, freshness, and length. During aging, for which they have a remarkable aptitude, each vintage affirms its personality and thus becomes a moving witness to the past.

Vintage 2025

Soil / Terroir: Sandy siliceous gravels, with very little clay and excellent drainage, from the Quaternary Era

Age of the vineyard: 38 years

Harvest: spread out from September 13th to September 25th, 2025

Vinification: 20 days of maceration in stainless vats

Aging: 50% new French oak barrels for 15 months.

Blend :
82 % Cabernet Sauvignon
07 % Merlot
06 % Cabernet Franc
05 % Petit Verdot

Degré : Average 13 °

Production: Average 30 000 Bottles

Aging potential: Average 20 years

Tasting note:

In April 2026, the dominant impression is of freshness, power, balance, finesse, and aromatic intensity. The powerful, long, and flavorful tannins of high quality will need to soften through barrel and bottle ageing before becoming fully integrated.

The 2025 vintage from Château Boyd-Cantenac will be a great vintage for ageing.
